Agenda item 77
Request for an advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on whether the unilateral declaration of independence of Kosovo is in accordance with international law

Serbia: draft resolution

Request for an advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on whether the unilateral declaration of independence of Kosovo is in accordance with international law

The General Assembly,

Guided by the principles enshrined in the Charter of the United Nations,

Bearing in mind its functions and powers under the Charter of the United Nations,

Recalling its resolution 63/3 of 8 October 2008,

Aware that an agreement between the parties on the effects of the unilateral declaration of independence of Kosovo from Serbia has not been reached,

Mindful of the fact that a unilateral secession cannot be an acceptable way of resolving territorial issues,

1. Takes note of the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on the accordance with international law of the unilateral declaration of independence in respect of Kosovo, rendered on 22 July 2010;

2. Calls upon the parties to find a mutually acceptable solution for all outstanding issues through peaceful dialogue, in the interest of peace, security and cooperation in the region;

3. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-sixth session an item entitled "Follow-up to the advisory opinion of the International Court of Justice on whether the unilateral declaration of independence of Kosovo is in accordance with international law".
